

Children's Home of Easton's Privacy Statement

The Children's Home of Easton understands your concerns about privacy on the Internet and takes them very seriously. Online giving through us is strictly permission-based.

We don't collect your e-mail address unless you volunteer your e-mail address on a form on this site. We do not sell or rent e-mail addresses.

Third party personally identifiable information you provide for memorial and honorarium donations will not be shared .

Children's Home of Easton may ask you to provide information when you donate. We need this information such as name, address, phone, and credit card number so we can process your donation and provide you with a receipt. We don't retain, share, or store your credit card information. We do save your contact information and add it to our personal donor based program.

We don't rent or sell customer information to outside marketers. We may use the information you provide to share information about our services, upcoming events, request monetary contributions or to inform you about the Children's Home of Easton.

No refunds will be given.
